

Donors Share: "Why We Give"

"We give to support the JCCNS's commitment to provide service to all ages of the community, especially the quality of programs for early childhood. It is very rewarding for us to see the number of children that are cared for by the dedicated staff."

— Brian and Suzanne Fin

"It inspires me so much that Jewish Family & Child Services is able to intake someone for one reason and then find out they might have needs in other areas of their lives or their family might have other needs. And JF&CS is able to help them with everything."

— Deb Milgram

"Cohen Hillel Academy fosters pride in being Jewish and we know that graduates of the school become strong advocates for Israel and themselves.

That's why we are supporters."

— Rabbi,
north of Boston

"I am always overwhelmed, if you will, at the quality and the caring of the JF&CS staff. We are obligated to help repair the world. JF&CS provides that opportunity and space."

— Ron Casty

"As an alumna of Cohen Hillel Academy, looking back I now know how much CHA shaped who I have become, and I want to pay it forward for the next generation."

— Cohen Hillel Academy alum

"We support CHA because they are providing young children with an incredible education, moral and Jewish foundation."

— Cohen Hillel Academy grandparent

"I am proud that my family have been members of the JCCNS for over seven decades. I give because I want my children, grandchildren, and hopefully someday my great-grandchildren to have the same incredible opportunities that I have had to learn, laugh and remain active and engaged."

— Anne Selby

"I met with a number of clients who would begin by telling me when they were really spiraling, they made their way to JF&CS, and JF&CS helped them get back on their feet."

— Ellie Svenson
